Mr Andrew Guthrie, Mrs Dorothy Ward.

IN ATTENDANCE: Mrs Colette McGarva (Link Officer)
P C Graeme Gordon, P C Neill Emerson,.

APOLOGIES: Mrs Elaine McQuade.

ADOPTION OF MINUTES FOR MEETING OF 15 October 2013

Proposed: Mrs D Ward, Seconded: Mr Roy Storie.

POLICE BUSINESS: A few very minor incidents reported, mainly cattle on the road.

There has been a break-in in the village and this is an ongoing investigation. Also the drugs team had significant success in a raid at Craig Tara.

COUNCILLOR'S REPORT: No Councillor was present

LINK OFFICER'S REPORT: Mr Storie explained to Mrs McGarva that we still await our "top-up" grant. As far as he is aware he has complied with all the conditions to get this.

The graffiti is still on the "Dunure" sign at the south of the village.

Mrs McGarva was also asked to pass on complaints about potholes – near Dunduff Farm entrance, and also the poor condition of Station Road at the bend near the harbour

MATTERS ARISING:

- Lighthouse: Grant forms have been submitted.
- Carrick Place: Mrs Ward advises confirms part of the road surface has been patched. This may be scheduled to be resurfaced in 2014.
- North Carrick Community Benefit: We hope to be represented here by two members of our community
- Potholes: Mrs McGarva advised on these.
- Grant Top-up: Mr Storie asked Mrs McGarva to look into this.
